This is the fourth edit directory was generated using computers at S&E nal offices. Every effort is being made to d accurate as possible. Our plans ar tinuing basis and formally produce and di

This Directory is organ in addition to being a telephone book, is de ut the ARS organization and key pe

The first section is cor s of ARS. The indentation scheme refle rchy and page references.

The second section is ar ees in the organization with approp references.

The third section is the main body of the Directory showing individual names, titles, phone numbers and addresses. The sequence of this section coincides with the ARS organization structure.

The fourth section contains a key personnel index. This index lists, in alphabetic order, individuals occupying similar key positions throughout ARS and the telephone number and page reference for each.

Corrections and updates should be forwarded to the appropriate Regional Administrative Office. The current computer records will be maintained at this level.

Suggestions about overall improvement of this ARS Directory will be most welcome. Suggestions and comments should be directed to Marianne Kingston, Room 013, NAL Building, Beltsville, Maryland 20705.
